

THE ART OF THE ASCENT

Private sessions with Matt Mitler & Dzieci

Through decades of investigation and exploration, Matt Mitler has developed a methodology that touches the core of being, exploring realms both primal and transcendent. From study with such masters as Jerzy Grotowski and Eugenio Barba in theatre; Carl Rogers and R. D. Laing in psychotherapy; and Jean Huston, Ram Dass, and Michel de Salzman in more esoteric disciplines, Matt has formed a uniquely artful, human, and transformative practice.

Personalized training sessions have been created for a diverse range of clientele, including therapists, theology students, medical students, psychiatric patients and staff, parents, teachers, youth in crisis, clergy, and even actors. Whatever your aspiration is, Matt and Dzieci are here to assist your ascent.

For actors, singers, dancers, comics, clowns, public speakers, and anyone with a personal work they wish to bring to a higher level
