The Road to Dionysus

An Ecstatic Para-theatrical Retreat
with Matt Mitler & Theatre Group Dzieci

June 15th to 17th Galiana Meditation Retreat East Chatham, NY
$350 (partial scholarships available)

Dzieci embodies a methodology that transcends human barriers through explorations both primal and spiritual. Employing elements of dynamic and visceral ensemble theatre and Humanistic psychology, ecstatic movement and meditation, and shamanic and sacred ceremony, Dzieci unmask habit and personality to reveal the essence and universality of the individual, and a more expansive and expressive range of being.

In Creative Communion, we are able to realign with our true nature, where our hearts, voices, and souls crack open in the safety of the sacred as we examine our full potential for being. Like a ripple, by deepening our capacity for presence, our connection to Source deepens. As we tap into this vast potential of being, the surface of the self unwinds, the sleeping parts awaken, and we step into the wild, uninhibited nature of ecstatic individuation.

Unfettered we become exalted.

During this powerful weekend retreat we will explore:
Visceral Ensemble Theatre Practices
Ecstatic Movement and Meditation
Shamanic Ritual and Ceremony
An Evening of Transformational Theatre with Dzieci

"My God what an awesome and profound experience!" -Mark Sklawer, Director, Body Temple
