Theatre Group Dzieci employs choral work, meditation, and subtle healing techniques, as an act of service in hospitals and institutions for the infirm and disadvantaged.

The healing circle at West Park is an experiment in sharing this practice with a larger community.

This work is open to everyone, of all denominations, and every session will be unique.

"Thank you for an absolutely beautiful, spiritual and miraculous afternoon with the Zicklin patients. It was a true gift to them and to me as well. Please relay my thanks to all of your amazing group. I could see the sparkle, love and caring in the eyes of everyone."

- Sue Matthews, Zicklin Hospice -
