Fools Mass
The Belrose Theatre, San Rafael

“By the end of the show, I was in love with every character. I no longer saw their teeth, or the dirt on their faces, or their stooped and spastic forms. I saw only human beings in love with the sacred, in connection with spirit. I saw brothers and sisters. I am still in rapture. It was magnificent, and deeply moving. And I can't stop thinking about it.”

Fools Mass
The Finnish Kaleva Hall, Berkeley

“I am so happy that I had a chance to see the Fools Mass.
From the early moments of standing in line to my exit, I felt held and engaged in something I still do not have words to explain. I am so humbled by my experience of witnessing. Thank you for sharing so intimately and with such grace.”

Jenifer Bruce

“Fools Mass is the finest incarnation of “blessed are the least of these” I have seen - Dzieci explodes the fourth wall and we become an integral part of the experience.”

Rev. Jeanie

Fools Mass
The Episcopal Church of St. John the Evangelist, San Francisco

“Thank you for this wonderful performance of Fools Mass on Sunday.
I still feel your presence. Coming from Poland many years ago and loving Polish language, your name ‘Dzieci’ and what you do is very close to my heart.”

Krystyna (Krysia) Maliniak

“If this were the authentic mass, you’d see me in church every Sunday.”
